DIED TALKING TO HIS FRIENDS

Dallas Boose, of Littlestown, Ceases to Answer Questions of Fellow Workmen and they Find him Dead. Mrs. Hewitt Died in Bendersville.

A few minutes after he ceased answering the questions of his friends Dallas H. Boose, oldest son of Mrs. Savilla Boose, of Littlestown, was found dead Wednesday afternoon as a result of heart trouble. While Mr. Boose's health had not been the best for some years, his condition was not regarded as serious and his death was wholly unexpected.

Mr. Boose, who is a carpenter by trade, was assisting workmen in wiring his house for electric lights, and installing a bath room. He was at work on the attic, and the other men who were on the second floor were conversing with him during the afternoon. About 3:30 they observed that he did not reply to several of their questions, and fearing that something was wrong, William Master crawled through the hole to the attic and there found him dead. The men succeeded in carrying him down and a hurried call was sent to Dr. Crouse, who stated that death had been immediate.

He was born in Myers' District, near Black's School House, Aug. 7th, 1868. About seven years ago the family moved to Littlestown.

He is survived by his mother and the following sisters and brothers: Mrs. Joseph Wolf, of Kingsdale; Mrs. Wilson Crouse, near Silver Run; Edward Boose, of Cumberland, Md.; Eli Boose, of Hampstead; Frank Boose, near St. James' Church, and Milton Boose, at home.

The funeral will be held on Saturday morning, services at house at 9:30 o'clock, Rev. S. C. Hoover, pastor of the Reformed church at Silver Run, of which he was a member, officiating. Interment in Silver Run cemetery.

MRS. DAVID HEWITT

Mrs. Mary E. Hewitt died at her home in Bendersville this morning at 9 o'clock, aged 70 years.

She is survived by her husband, David Hewitt, and one son, George Hewitt, of Philadelphia.

GRAND ARMY'S ANNUAL BANQUET

Gettysburg Veterans Hold Reunion and Annual Banquet. Largest Attendance for Many Years. Elaborate Dinner Served.

Gettysburg's Grand Army men, members of Corporal Skelly Post 9, and other veterans to the number of eighty six attended their annual reunion and banquet in the Post Room on Thursday afternoon. It was the largest attendance and the best banquet for many years.

W. T. Ziegler, the commander, called the meeting to order and after a few introductory remarks prayer was offered by Dr. T. C. Billheimer. Speeches were made by Dr. Billheimer, I. S. Stonesifer, Charles G. Miller, Mr. Schoch, of Mechanicsburg; Dr. J. A. Clutz and Theodore McAllister. "America" and "Tenting on the Old Camp Ground" were sung and then the old soldiers had a group picture taken in front of the building.

An elaborate dinner was served by the Ladies of the G. A. R. consisting of turkey, oysters, and all the good things that go to make up a complete Thanksgiving Day feast.

Ever since the post was organized in 1872 these banquets have been annual events, always looked forward to with the keenest delight by the members. It was formerly the custom to have it held at night but it was found more convenient to have a banquet at mid-day so that all could attend and for several years this has been the arrangement.

The Post now numbers ninety members and the fact that there were eighty six men present—only a few of whom were not numbered in the active membership—shows the interest taken in the affair. The roll of the Post is also larger now than for many years, a number of veterans who allowed their membership to become inactive renewing it, so that, in spite of deaths, there are now more veterans belonging to and attending the meetings of Corporal Skelly Post than for a long time.

LINCOLN HIGHWAY

Contributing to Project a National Duty Says Paper.

"We should not forget that the Lincoln Highway was established to immediately promote and procure the establishment of a continuous improved highway from the Atlantic to the Pacific," says the San Francisco News-Letter. "Immediate action is necessary to the early completion of this great undertaking. Being of national concern, for anyone not to boost the Lincoln Highway and lend financial aid, is, in one sense, to shirk his duty to his country. The subscription method is so purely patriotic that it should appeal to everyone. California will no doubt rise to the occasion and contribute her share of the money needed."

A dispatch from Pittsburgh this morning said:

The frightened child ran screaming to the living apartment in the rear and her mother, securing a revolver, chased Moxley back into the street, firing as she ran. Moxley threw up his hands and pleaded with her not to shoot him.

MANY AUTOS

89,000 Automobile Tags Issued in this State.

The automobile division of the State Highway Department on Wednesday issued auto license No. 89,000, the highest mark ever attained in the issuing of licenses and tags in this State, passing last year's highest mark by almost 20,000. Statisticians who work out problems of interest, took their pencils in hand and figured it out that estimating the average values of automobiles owned in this State at $1,000 each, there are $89,000,000 worth of autos in the commonwealth, but of course that is a low estimate as the great majority of cars cost their owners from $1,000 to $2,500 and some as high as $4,000 to $5,000.

The division is preparing to issue auto licenses and tags for 1914, and when the rush comes in a short time will endeavor to send them out so quickly that very few will be left unsupplied on January 1, when the new tags will be used for the first time.

WOULD TUNNEL THE MOUNTAIN

Story of Big Railroad Plan becomes Current Following Visit of Rockefeller to Western Maryland System. Came through here.

According to advices from New York, the recent visit of John D. Rockefeller, Jr., when he inspected part of the Western Maryland Railway, including the line through Gettysburg may result in the tunneling of a portion of the Blue Ridge Mountains.

Mr. Rockefeller represents the controlling interests in this property and the Standard Oil capitalists behind him are credited with dominating the Western Maryland situation. It is well known that it was the resources of this powerful group of financiers which made the connection of the road with the New York Central a possibility and paved the way for creating a new East and West trunk line by the joining of these two systems.

These New York advices say that since Mr. Rockefeller returned from his trip of inspection he has freely discussed Western Maryland affairs with his business associates and others. He has frankly said that in its present shape, with its heavy grades over the Blue Ridge Mountains and with a single track, the road cannot hope to compete successfully with the Baltimore and Ohio and the Pennsylvania for this through business.

As a result, it is said, the road may build a stretch of track from Smithsburg in Washington county, to Monocacy Junction, in Frederick county. This is to be in a straight line and will necessitate the tunneling of the Blue Ridge for most of the way. This proposition, it is asserted, met with the approval of Mr. Rockefeller, who was not in the least appalled by the size of the undertaking or its probable cost which will run to $40,000,000 or more. The new line is to follow the course of the Red Run Valley and will require two tunnels, one to be fully two miles long, while the other will be somewhat less.

A completion of the work would give the Western Maryland a low-grade line at its heaviest point across this mountain range. It will also shorten the existing line by many miles. It is believed the engineers of the company have already been at work on this proposition and that plans for the line have been worked out.

FOR NEW CHURCH

Rev. Dr. Trump's Congregation to Build New Church.

The Martinsburg, W. Va., World says: "At a meeting of the Council of the Lutheran church held Monday night at the church it was unanimously decided to sell the present building, purchase a site and erect a new home and Sunday school building. Because of the crowded condition, and the inability to acquire more ground to enlarge the church it has become imperative to make this move."

"The Rev. Dr. Charles S. Trump has been pastor of the church for 25 years, and during that period he has seen it grow to its present splendid proportions. He is enthusiastically in favor of a new building, and is laboring incessantly toward that end."

"Definite steps will be taken at once, and if present plans are carried into successful execution the Lutheran congregation will have the best church building in the city."

Evidence of Impure Blood and a Run-Down Condition.
When the blood becomes thin, poor, devitalized nature cries out through such external evidence for help, and the safest, surest and most helpful remedy we know is Vinol.
This is because it is a combination of the two most world famed tonics—the medicinal curative elements of cod liver oil (without the oil) and tonic iron for the blood. Vinol strengthens the digestive organs, creates a hearty appetite, purifies and enriches the blood, creates strength.
Mrs. Helen Wingate, St. Louis, Mo., says: "I was in very poor health, nervous and run-down, and nothing in the way of medicine did me any good until my druggist recommended Vinol. It built up my health, restored strength and I feel that I owe my life to Vinol. I cannot praise it too highly."

We say positively there is nothing like Vinol to purify and enrich the blood and build up weak, run-down people. If it should fail in your case we will return your money. People's Drug Store, Gettysburg, Pa.

TAX COLLECTOR SLAIN AND BURIED

Murderers Confess and Lead
Way to His Body.

VICTIM MISSING TWO WEEKS

Was Found Buried in Lonely Woods
After Slayers Accompanied Authorities to the Spot.

Media, Pa., Nov. 21.—S. Lewis Pinkerton, the missing Delaware county tax collector, and farm superintendent, was found murdered and buried in a strip of lonely woodland half-way between Wawa and Darlington. His head had been beaten until his features were almost unrecognizable and his arms and body were cut and bruised.

The body which had been buried by the murderers, lay in a shallow grave, where it had rested since the night of November 7, when Pinkerton had been slain. On top of it was a bloody blackjack which had been used to beat Pinkerton to death in a stable on the "Brick House Farms" of G. Searing Wilson, at Glen Mills, twelve miles away. Pinkerton was superintendent of four farms belonging to Wilson.

District Attorney Hannum, of Delaware county, and O'Toole, a detective were led to the place where the body had been laid by the confessed murderers. They are Roland S. Pennington, a twenty-year-old farm hand on the Wilson place and George H. March, thirty-two years old, employed by Wilson as a dairyman. Both are now confined in the Media jail.

The arrest of Pennington and March occurred after the former had confessed and implicated March. At first the latter denied the crime, but when he was confronted by the mutilated body at the grave, broke down and admitted the murder.

After the District Attorney and O'Toole had wormed the narrative of the murder out of Pennington, he agreed to lead the men to the body. Both Pennington and March had been "sweetened" in the stable where the murder had taken place, and from there the four, in a motor car, started on their ghastly search.

Pennington did the directing, and the party started to follow the route traversed by Pennington and March with the body on the night of the murder. The course led first to Wawa. From there Pennington told Lee to drive over toward Darlington, about three miles distant.

Pennington's eyes were almost bursting from his head and he scanned the roadway ahead, revealed in the glare of the motor's search lights. About a mile and a half from Wawa he turned to O'Toole.

"We're getting near it now," he muttered. "Stop here."

The motor halted, and the four men got out. Pennington led the way with a lantern held high over his head. District Attorney Hannum, O'Toole and March followed, the first two carrying lanterns and spades. They crossed the old Darlington estate, covering about half a mile of field, meadow and woodland, scrambling over fences and stumbling through the darkness, coming to a wood-crooked hill on the farm of Mrs. Mary Crosby.

Entering one strip of lonely woods, Pennington stopped, swung his lantern around and finally kicked at some loose earth.

"Dig here," he said to O'Toole. The motorist stood guard over the two prisoners, but there was no need. Pennington and March stood limp and trembling, incapable of moving, while the detective dug into the moist earth. He had penetrated about two feet when he began to go more carefully. He was digging around a long, still object. Then he called to Hannum. Together they lifted the thing out of the hole. Pinkerton's body lay before them.

Something dropped back into the hole as the body was removed. It was a blackjack, on which matted hair clung. Around the head of the body was a bag. O'Toole unfasted this and started back.

Turning upon March, who had up to this time maintained that Pennington had lied in his confession, the District Attorney whipped sharp and pointed questions into the trembling man, and there, with the mutilated body March broke down.

"Yes," he whispered. "Get me away from here. I did it. You've got the goods on me. I'll admit it all. I'll tell you about it; I'll tell you every thing. Only get me away from here; for God's sake get me away!"

District Attorney Hannum still believes that March has not told all the truth. The man still maintains that robbery was not the motive for the crime. Pennington declares it was a motive and that the money found on Pinkerton, with his signet ring, were taken by them and division made. Pinkerton had between $300 and $600 with him when he disappeared.

BELIEVE HUERTA WILL ABDICATE

Expected to Resign Presidency
After Abdication.

BIG INCREASES IN TAXES

Dictator Doubled Some and Also Authorized Banks to Issue Paper Money.

Mexico City, Nov. 21.—It was regarded here as not entirely impossible that Provisional President Huerta, after having, through the ratification of the new congress, relieved himself from the danger of being called to account for his acts by some future administration, might be brought to the point of self elimination through the efforts of the foreign powers supporting the United States government.

It was not generally expected that Provisional President Huerta on the convening of the new congress would encounter much of the obstructionist tactics which characterized the last congress, as the new deputies were known to be in sympathy with his policies. On their meeting General Huerta, it was assumed, would automatically forfeit the self-imposed powers which he has enjoyed since the dissolution of the two Houses early last month.

One of the first steps the new congress was expected to take was the ratification in entirety of the chief executive's acts as dictator and that the two Houses would be asked to do this was plainly indicated in his message to them.

The securing of the ratification of his acts is currently reported to have been one of the reasons why General Huerta so obstinately opposed the pressure brought to bear on him by the United States and other nations to withdraw and efface himself.

The Provisional President is said by those believed to be in a position to know to have been persuaded that he must resign and to have named Manuel Garza Aldape, former Minister of the Interior, as the man he desired to succeed him, when the insistence of John Lind, the personal representative of President Wilson, upon the abolition of the new Congress, caused him to change his attitude and reject the idea of resigning.

One of the last acts of Provisional President Huerta as dictator, before the new congress places a restriction on his powers, was an edict making a sweeping increase in the internal taxes of Mexico.

The stamp tax, which requires a revenue stamp on checks, receipts, contracts and all documents of a public nature, was doubled. The tax on tobacco, alcohol and crude petroleum was heavily increased.

The marked manner in which Provisional President Huerta displayed his cordiality toward Nelson O'Shaughnessy, the American Charge d'Affaires, and the way in which he applauded the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner" at Wednesday's reception in Chapultepec Castle were the subject of much comment. Although the entire diplomatic corps was present, General Huerta did not converse at length with any of the diplomats except Mr. O'Shaughnessy, with whom he spoke privately for a quarter of an hour.

At the same time, Senora Huerta showed great cordiality in her reception of Mrs. O'Shaughnessy.

Thinks Huerta Rile Crumbling.
Washington, Nov. 21.—President Wilson, it became known, interprets the situation in Mexico City to indicate that the Huerta Government is disintegrating, and that though things might move very slowly, Huerta eventually will be eliminated.

The President let it be known that no summary instructions had been sent to Charge O'Shaughnessy, and that no positive steps or actions not already published had been taken.

BIG TURKEY FOR WILSON

Members of Cabinet will be Presented With 25-Pound Bird

Washington, Nov. 21.—President Wilson, Secretary Joseph Tumulty and the members of the President's Cabinet, with the exception of Secretary McAdoo, who is a widower, will be presented by South Trimble, Clerk of the House of Representatives, with a pure bred pedigree bronze turkey raised on Kentucky Blue Grass, for Thanksgiving. The President's turkey, it was announced, will be a yearling gobble weighing about 40 pounds. The others will weigh about 25 pounds.

STANDARD OIL DOUBLES PROFITS

Smashed Trust Companies Pay
Huge Dividends.

New York, Nov. 21.—The recent extra cash dividends declared by former Standard Oil subsidiaries has stirred renewed interest in the activity of oil stocks in the face of inactivity in other securities. Dividends thus far this year show the former Standard Oil companies have declared a total of 111 per cent. on the basis of the $100,000,000 authorized capital of the parent company, against 52 per cent. declared in 1912. Standard Oil Company of New Jersey, the parent company, paid 40 per cent. yearly dividends in the last six years previous to dissolution.

Dividends disbursed up to the present this year aggregate more than $111,000,000. Several of the companies are yet to be heard from on their regular quarterly dividend declarations. Up to the end of September eight of the companies distributed stock dividends with an aggregate par value of $81,900,000, while subscription rights were extended to the stockholders of one company having a market value of $2,500,000.

The 40 per cent. extra cash dividend declared by the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey last March amounting to nearly $10,000,000, was one of the biggest extra dividends ever declared.

Among the highest dividend rates paid during the year were 60 per cent. by the Standard Oil of New Jersey, 50 per cent. by the Washington Oil Company, whose capital, however, is the only $100,000; 57 per cent. by the Ohio Oil Company, 49 per cent. each by the Solar Refining Company, the Eureka Pipe Line and the Buckeye Pipe Line, 32 per cent. each by the Standard Oil of Indiana, the Southern Pipe Line, the Indiana Pipe Line, and 31 1/2 per cent. by the Standard of Kansas. Only four of the thirty-four segregated companies have failed thus far to declare dividends—the Atlantic Refining, Colonial Oil, Union Tank Line and the Pierce Oil Corporation.

BATHING AT ATLANTIC CITY

Thermometer Registers 76 Degrees and Summer Attire is in Order
Atlantic City, N. J., Nov. 21.—Bathing is almost popular here. All high temperature figures for November were smashed when the thermometer at the United States Weather Bureau registered 76 degrees, one degree higher than the best previous record, established in 1904.

The temperature was still going up at that hour, and it was predicted that 78 degrees would be reached before there was a decline.

Along the boardwalk visitors are out in summer tongs and white flannel trousers were common.

AN OLD RECIPE TO DARKEN HAIR

Sage Tea and Sulphur Turns Gray, Faded Hair Dark and Glossy.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray; also ends dandruff, itching scalp and stops falling hair. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome.

Nowadays we simply ask at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You will get a large bottle for about 50 cents. Everybody uses this old, famous recipe, because no one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, thick and glossy and you look years younger.

I will be in Gettysburg every Tuesday at Penrose Myers' Jewelry Store.

STATE TO PROBE COLD STORAGE

Governor's Tender's Commission Meets in Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Nov. 21.—Four of the six members of the legislative commission appointed recently by Governor Tener to investigate cold storage conditions throughout the State with a view to submitting a special report to the 1915 session of the Legislature, met here, and after organizing and electing officers adjourned to reconvene the early part of January.

Senator Charles H. Kline, of Pittsburgh, was elected chairman; Representative Thomas F. McNichol, of Philadelphia, treasurer, and William P. Gallagher, of Wilkes-Barre, was chosen secretary of the commission.

Senator Kline immediately after adjournment made a statement, in which he declared that the investigation would be far-reaching in its results. He said that the commission was entirely unbiased and would meet the cold storage question in a manner that would be satisfactory to those in favor as well as those opposed to the present cold storage act.

The commission will report on: The necessity of cold storage and the proper provision for the protection of perishable products.

The value of such products to the producer and the community at periods of the greatest production, when the supply exceeds the demand and at all other times.

The length of time articles should remain under refrigeration or cold storage.

Whether refrigeration or cold storage products shall be branded, and if so, what shall be determined to be refrigerator products.

The effect on the price of commodities by reason of placing them under refrigeration.

The relation of cold storage to the high cost of living.

The effect of cold storage legislation in this and other States.

The advisability of a uniform cold storage law.

CANALS WILL CUT COST OF LIVING

Will Mean Big Saving in Freight, Steamship Man Says.

HE GIVES SOME DETAILS

Declares Transportation Charges From the South Would be 30 to 40 Per Cent. Lower.

Jacksonville, Fla., Nov. 21.—Assertion that the construction of inland waterways along the Atlantic coast would strike a heavy blow at the high cost of living, was made in a paper written by Eugene W. Fry, treasurer of the Southern Transportation Company, and read before the Atlantic Inland Waterway Association, holding its sixth annual convention here.

Mr. Fry could not attend the meeting. His company has offices in Philadelphia, Baltimore and Norfolk. The saving in the cost of transportation of freight now carried in coastwise steamships, he said, would amount to between thirty and forty per cent. In this saving Philadelphia, he pointed out, would be particularly benefited.

"Transportation by barges is the cheapest method of freighting known today," the paper read. "If cargoes can be transported by barges between points where there are canals or waterways it will surely reduce the cost of living. I understand the Allegheny and Chesapeake canal, recently purchased by our government, will be deepened to twelve feet. As soon as the work of deepening this canal is completed it will bring about a saving of between thirty and forty per cent. in the cost of freights between North Carolina points and Norfolk."

"We are now asking our government to purchase the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal and to make it a free waterway of proper depth."

"Coal could be carried in the barges from Philadelphia to Norfolk and other Virginia points at about 40 per cent. less cost of freight. Guano or other fertilizing materials could be transported by barge at 40 per cent. less cost."

"The average market rate for barges in the phosphate from Philadelphia to Norfolk is 75 cents a long ton. The barges could carry this commodity with a free waterway twelve feet deep at 45 cents a ton, and make the same profits they are now making. Pig iron could be shipped from Newport News, Norfolk and vicinity to Philadelphia, Camden, Bristol and Burlington at 29 to 35 cents a ton less cost."

"If this canal were opened up as a free waterway, twelve feet deep, it would reduce the cost of the transportation between Norfolk and other Virginia points of shipment to Philadelphia, Camden and other New Jersey points on the Delaware river, fully twenty-five to forty per cent."

"Lumber could be delivered in Philadelphia at fifty cents a thousand feet less cost, which would mean lower cost of lumber to builders and manufacturers. Pulp wood could be delivered in Wilmington, Delaware and Philadelphia for at least fifty cents a cord less than at present. This should bring about cheaper cost of paper. Railroad ties could be transported at a saving of about twenty-five per cent. of the present cost of freighting."

"The present market for pig iron transportation from Norfolk to Philadelphia and New Jersey points is ninety-five cents a ton. Barges could carry iron through the proposed free canal with twelve feet draft at about sixty-five cents a ton at the same profit."

"These savings on all of these commodities would come about by reason of the elimination of the present canal tolls, and the boats being able to load full cargoes to nearly a twelve-foot draft, whereas the same boats are now limited to a nine-foot draft."

"If there was a continuous inland free waterway twelve feet deep, from New York to Florida, timber products could be transported by barge of 500, 600 to 600,000 feet capacity from Georgia and Florida to the northern markets at a board measure. This saving of about $1,250 on every cargo of 600,000 feet would amount to an enormous sum of money a year."

NEEDS HIS MILEAGE

Congressman from Kentucky Made

Plea to Adjourn Congress

Washington, Nov. 21.—With the frank declaration that he "needed" his mileage, Representative Thomas of Kentucky introduced a resolution demanding that Congress adjourn on November 22.

"My creditors want me to have my mileage," Thomas declared. "Nine-tenths of the members feel the same as I do. Congress should have adjourned three months ago. I could live very comfortably on $12,000 a year. I could live on $7,500 a year. But I am from a Republican district where it takes real money to get the people to vote right."

Col. Goethals Silent on Dayton Offer.

Panama, Nov. 21.—Col. Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama canal, declined to comment on the offer of authorities of Dayton, Ohio, that he become city manager or to any other proposition said to have been made to him.

FOOD PRICES HIGHER

THAN IN 23 YEARS

66 Per Cent. Greater on August 15 Than in 1890.

Washington, Nov. 21.—Retail prices of food were higher August 15 than they had been at any other time during the last twenty-three years, according to figures of the Bureau of Labor statistics department.

Retail prices of the principal articles of food in forty important industrial cities show that during the year twelve of the fifteen articles advanced in price while only three declined.

Comparison of retail prices on August 15, 1913, with prices on the same date in 1890, shows potatoes advanced 20.0 per cent.; bacon, 18.3 per cent.; smoked ham, 17.6 per cent.; eggs, 12.6 per cent.; round steak, 11.5 per cent.; sirloin steak, 10.2 per cent.; pork chops, 9.3 per cent.; hens, 8.7 per cent.; lamb, 8.1 per cent.; rib roast, 7.9 per cent.; butter, 5.7 per cent.; and milk, 2.7 per cent. Sugar declined 7.9 per cent.; wheat flour, 5.5 per cent.; and cornmeal, 2.7 per cent.

Compared with averages prices for the ten-year period 1890 to 1899, every article for which prices were noted with the exception of sugar, advanced. Bacon advanced 139.0 per cent.; pork chops, 124.5 per cent.; round steak, 108.4 per cent.; smoked ham, 92.2 per cent.; sirloin steak, 79.3 per cent.; rib roast, 76.5 per cent.; potatoes, 75.2 per cent.; hens, 73.2 per cent.; lamb, 69.1 per cent.; eggs, 66.4 per cent.; corn meal, 60.0 per cent.; butter, 41.9 per cent.; and milk, 38.8 per cent. Sugar declined 2.3 per cent.

Robert Wilson, of Carbondale, may Have Been Murdered in Hotel, Scranton, Pa., Nov. 21.—Mystery surrounds the finding of the body of Robert Wilson, father-in-law of John Rowe, a hotel keeper of Carbondale.

Throwing dice for cigars is a common practice in tobacco shops in Vancouver, and if the customer wins he pays less than the recognized price for his cigar. Makers of small hickory handles for hammers, chisels and the like are now using to use the waste from mills which make hickory spokes and pick and ax handles. Although there are nearly 53,000,000 sheep in the United States, they represent less than 5 per cent of the total number of domestic animals on the country's farms.
